An invitation to SA allied health practitioners

National Disability Services (NDS) is organising a free networking event exclusively for allied health professionals operating in SA. The aim is for allied health professionals delivering disability services to meet peers and colleagues from other allied health professions to build connections and enable future referrals, multidisciplinary service delivery and/or collaboration.

The event will be run in a speed dating format to give you the opportunity to meet a number of new people in a short time. An informal networking period will follow a short presentation to allow you to have more in-depth conversations with your 'dates' and meet other attendees.

The event will take place on Thursday, 26 September at the NDS Office - Building 5, Hilton Central, 19 Daringa Street, Mile End SA 5031 Doors open from 5.45pm for a 6pm start. Register now! Places are limited and registration is required to participate.

To enhance post-event networking, an event registration list will be shared with participants at the end of the evening. Please opt-out during the registration process if you would prefer that we not share your details.

Interested, but not able to attend on this date? The next speed dating event will be held on Thursday, 24 October 2019. Email your interest in attending to info@ndp.org.au.
