

Michelle Pomeroy

Developmental Educator, I Can Jump Puddles

'NDIS has changed the sector, what does this mean for Disability Support Workers?'

Michelle is a Developmental Educator with a passion for creating vibrant and interactive learning environments. Michelle is also a Behaviour Specialist, provides Therapeutic Support, and is an Early Childhood Key Worker with I Can Jump Puddles. Michelle has personal experience with disability and the NDIS, and utilises her life and professional experience within her training to promote person-centred care.

NDIS Requirements and Plans - Session Subject Matter

- What is NDIS and how does it operate?
- NDIS impact on participants: Choice and control and impacts on different client groups
- What needs to change for disability workers to better meet NDIS service delivery requirements?

Sam Boag

Director and Physiotherapist, I Can Jump Puddles

'Knowledge is power: Empower your client by understanding that their NDIS Plan is the key to accessing their service requirements.'

Sam is a Physiotherapist with more than 20 years of experience, and has specialised in the paediatric disability sector. Sam has been involved in the rollout and implementation of the NDIS since its inception in SA, and she has strong relationships with a variety of local service providers. She is a kind, caring and knowledgeable expert on all things NDIS.

Session Subject Matter

- What has happened – examples of what a participant goes through to get their NDIS plan
- What can 'goals' actually be?
- Empowerment to achieve
- Advocacy and how to support
- Real examples of types of services within plans