

NSW Public Guardian - Free Workshops 2019

Help your clients build decision making capacity.

The NSW Public Guardian is offering free tailored workshops for disability and aged care service staff to promote the human rights of people with disabilities.

Workshop 1:
DISABILITY SECTOR

Introduction to supported decision making
(Train the Trainer available)

Workshop 2:
DISABILITY SECTOR

Risk enablement in the context of supported decision making

Workshop 3:
AGED-CARE SECTOR

Support for decision making in an aged care setting

Workshops are run over one full day and are suitable for front line staff and management.

You will learn how to:

- Build the ability of people with disability to make their own decisions
- Apply effective steps for providing support for decision making
- Debate dilemmas and tensions, as well as strategies to address these
- Discuss upcoming law reform in the Guardianship sector

The training will be considered in the context of the NDIS and incoming Aged Care Standards

Free In-House Organisational training will be considered upon request.

To express your interest please complete the registration form or email your preference, your location and organisation to informationssupport@opg.nsw.gov.au
